proper notice of the Motion's request for interim relief having been provided, and it appearing that no other or further notice of such request need be provided; and the Court having reviewed the Motion and held a hearing to consider the relief requested in the Motion on an interim basis on September 17, 2019 (the "Hearing"); and upon the Lowne Declaration filed contemporaneously with the Motion, and the record of the Hearing; and after due deliberation the Court having determined that the legal and factual bases set forth in the Motion and at the Hearing establish good and sufficient cause for the relief granted herein, in that such relief will provide a material net benefit to the Debtors' estates and creditors after taking into account the Bankruptcy Code's priority scheme and that such relief is necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm to the Debtors and their estates as contemplated by Bankruptcy Rule 6003(b), is a proper exercise of business judgment, and is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates, creditors and all parties in interest; now, therefore,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT

1. The Motion is granted on an interim basis as set forth herein.
2. The Debtors' are, in their sole discretion, authorized and empowered, but not directed, to maintain their Surety Bond Program on an uninterrupted basis, and in accordance with the same practices and procedures as were in effect prior to the Petition Date.
3. The Debtors are hereby authorized, but not directed, to honor each of the Indemnity Agreements.
4. The Debtors are, in their sole discretion, authorized, but not directed, to pay all amounts arising under the Surety Bond Program, due and payable after the Petition Date; provided that, prior to entry of an order granting the relief requested in the Motion on a final basis, the Debtors will not pay any prepetition amounts arising under the Surety Bond Program before the applicable due date.

5. The Debtors are, in their sole discretion, authorized, but not directed, to renew existing surety bonds, increase or decrease the size of any such surety bonds and obtain new surety bonds (including providing any collateral and/or security in connection therewith), and execute any other agreements in connection with the Surety Bond Program and all related instruments, documents and papers, and to take all actions reasonably appropriate with respect thereto, in each case in accordance with the applicable documents governing the Debtors' Surety Bond Program.

6. The failure to specifically describe or include any particular feature of the Surety Bond Program in this Order shall not diminish or impair the effectiveness of such feature, it being the intent of this Court that the Surety Bond Program be approved in its entirety.

7. Nothing in this Order or the Motion shall be construed as prejudicing the rights of the Debtors to dispute or contest the amount of or basis for any claims against the Debtors in connection with or relating to the Surety Bond Program.

8. To the extent any surety bond or related agreement is deemed an executory contract within the meaning of section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, neither this Order nor any payments made in accordance with this Order shall constitute the assumption or post-petition reaffirmation of those surety bonds or related agreements under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code.

9. The Final Hearing shall be held on October 10, 2019, at 10:00 a.m. (Prevailing Eastern Time). Any objections or responses to the entry of the Final Order shall be: (a) filed with the Court, with a copy to the Court's chambers, and (b) served as provided in the Case Management Order on or before 12:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern Time) on the day that is at least two (2) business days before the date of the applicable hearing. If no objections or responses are filed and served, this Court may enter the Final Order without further notice or hearing.

10. If no objections are timely filed and served as set forth herein, the Debtors shall, on or after the Objection Deadline, submit to the Court a final order as provided in the Case Management Order substantially in the form of this Order, which order shall be submitted and may be entered with no further notice or opportunity to be heard afforded any party, and the Motion shall be approved nunc pro tunc to the date of the commencement of these chapter 11 cases.

11. The contents of the Motion and the notice procedures set forth therein are good and sufficient notice and satisfy the Bankruptcy Rules and the Local Rules, and no other or further notice of the Motion or the entry of this Order shall be required.

12. Any Bankruptcy Rule (including, but not limited to, Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h)) or Local Rule that might otherwise delay the effectiveness of this Order is hereby waived, for cause, and the terms and conditions of this Order shall be immediately effective and enforceable upon its entry.

13. The Debtors are authorized to take all such actions as are necessary or appropriate to implement the relief granted in this Order.

14. The Court shall retain jurisdiction to hear and determine all matters arising from or related to the implementation, interpretation and enforcement of this Order.
